

A wound neglected is a wound infected. Join this course, organised by St Luke's Hospital, to be equipped with relevant knowledge and skills in wound care and management.

Course Objectives

- Describe relevant knowledge & skills to provide skin care & maintenance of skin health for patients.
- Describe evidence-based care in assessment, prevention & management of pressure injury.
- Distinguish between the available wound care products.
- Apply tips & techniques learnt to provide holistic wound care for patients.

Training Methodology

Lecture, group activities and discussions, practicum demonstration, case presentation.

Target Audience

Registered Nurse, Enrolled Nurses, Nursing Aides

Course Time

9am - 5pm (for all days)

Course Fee: $363.80 (Including

GST) Prevailing course fee subsidy at 90% for Singaporeans/PRs and 45% for Work Pass Holders working in eligible community care organisations.

Course Outline (2 Full Days)

Run	Day	Course Dates	Course Outline
			• Zoom Session
• 3	1	7 Apr 2021	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Anatomy and physiology of the skin • Effects of ageing on the skin Zoom Session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Common skin disorders among the elderly • General skin assessment of patient • Understand the different type of skin tears and its management • Introduction to wound care products • Applying appropriate wound dressing
• 3	2	21 Apr 2021	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Risk assessment and management of pressure injury • Assessment on wound care knowledge Zoom Session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Case presentation on skin tear and pressure injury
• 4	1	5 May 2021	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Anatomy and physiology of the skin • Effects of ageing on the skin Zoom Session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Common skin disorders among the elderly • General skin assessment of patient • Understand the different type of skin tears and its management • Introduction to wound care products • Applying appropriate wound dressing
• 4	2	19 May 2021	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Risk assessment and management of pressure injury • Assessment on wound care knowledge Zoom Session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Case presentation on skin tear and pressure injury

Trainers' Profile

Florence Ang is a Senior Wound Clinician at St Luke's Hospital. Florence is a vascular nurse specialist with 10 years clinical experience in wound management and has multiple awards for her contribution to lower limb salvage. She is an expert in precision wound debridement and has an advanced wound debridement cert from Australia.

Kavitha D/O Sanmugam is an Advanced Practice Nurse at St Luke's Hospital. Kavitha has attained her Masters' in Nursing from NUS in 2017 as well as an Advanced Diploma in Medical/Surgical in 2011. She has completed WOCN Certification in 2019. She is experienced in managing NPWT wounds and have conducted NPWT workshops.

Caroline Tan is an Assistant Nurse Clinician at St Luke's Hospital. Caroline's areas of expertise include nursing geriatric pressure injuries and providing home Negative Pressure Wound Therapy (NPWT) for postsurgical vascular & orthopaedic patients. She attained the Industry Trainer Module Certificate in Coaching Skills from ITE in 2013.

Venue

📍 Online – Details will be sent to participants

Enquiries

☎ 6895 2782 ✉ slwcadmin@stluke.org.sg

Register Now

<https://ims.wizlearn.com/AIC>

In partnership with

